You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: WILLIAM MCCAUGHAN, JR.
CASE NUMBER: 1:23-CR-20325-RAR(s)(1)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. I understand additional information regarding these conditions is available at www.flsp.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: WILLIAM MCCAUGHAN, JR.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Adam Walsh Act Search Condition: The Defendant shall submit to the U.S. Probation Officer conducting periodic unannounced searches of the Defendant's person, property, house, residence, vehicles, papers, computer(s), other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, include retrieval and copying of all data from the computer(s) and any internal or external peripherals and effects at any time, with or without warrant by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release. The search may include the retrieval and copying of all data from the computer(s) and any internal or external peripherals to ensure compliance with other supervision conditions and/or removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection; and to have installed on the Defendant's computer(s), at the Defendant's expense, any hardware or software systems to monitor the Defendant's computer use.

Computer Modem Restriction: The Defendant shall not possess or use a computer that contains an internal, external or wireless modem without the prior approval of the Court.

Computer Possession Restriction: The Defendant shall not possess or use any computer; except that the Defendant may, with the prior approval of the Court, use a computer in connection with authorized employment.

Data Encryption Restriction: The Defendant shall not possess or use any data encryption technique or program.

Employer Computer Restriction Disclosure: The Defendant shall permit third party disclosure to any employer or potential employer, concerning any computer-related restrictions that are imposed upon the Defendant.

Financial Disclosure Requirement: The Defendant shall provide complete access to financial information, including disclosure of all business and personal finances, to the U.S. Probation Officer.

No Contact with Minors: The Defendant shall have no personal, mail, telephone, or computer contact with children/minors under the age of 18 or with the victim.

No Contact with Minors in Employment: The Defendant shall not be employed in a job requiring contact with children under the age of 18 or with the victim.

No Involvement in Youth Organizations: The Defendant shall not be involved in any children's or youth organization.

No New Debt Restriction: The Defendant shall not apply for, solicit or incur any further debt, included but not limited to loans, lines of credit or credit card charges, either as a principal or cosigner, as an individual or through any corporate entity, without first obtaining permission from the United States Probation Officer.

DEFENDANT: WILLIAM MCCAUGHAN, JR.
CASE NUMBER: 1:23-CR-20325-RAR(s)(1)

Relinquishment of Licensure: Upon request of the appropriate regulatory agency, the Defendant shall relinquish his/her license to said agency. The Defendant is on notice that such relinquishment is permanent and will be considered disciplinary action.

Restricted from Possession of Sexual Materials: The Defendant shall not buy, sell, exchange, possess, trade, or produce visual depictions of minors or adults engaged in sexually explicit conduct. The Defendant shall not correspond or communicate in person, by mail, telephone, or computer, with individuals or companies offering to buy, sell, trade, exchange, or produce visual depictions of minors or adults engaged in sexually explicit conduct.

Sex Offender Registration: The Defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he or she resides, works, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense.

Sex Offender Treatment: The Defendant shall participate in a sex offender treatment program to include psychological testing and polygraph examination. Participation may include inpatient/outpatient treatment, if deemed necessary by the treatment provider. The Defendant will contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment) based on ability to pay or availability of third party payment.

Substance Abuse Treatment: The Defendant shall participate in an approved treatment program for drug and/or alcohol abuse and abide by all supplemental conditions of treatment. Participation may include inpatient/outpatient treatment. The Defendant will contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment) based on ability to pay or availability of third party payment.

Unpaid Restitution, Fines, or Special Assessments: If the Defendant has any unpaid amount of restitution, fines, or special assessments, the Defendant shall notify the probation officer of any material change in the Defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the Defendant's ability to pay.
